

Keynote Speakers

Margaret Haddock MBE

Chief Executive Designate – Orchardville Society, President – European Union of Supported Employment. Margaret Haddock been employed by Orchardville for over 20 years and has been employed in several positions within the organisation. Deputy Chief Executive of The Orchardville Society for over 14 years Margaret now is the new Chief Executive Designate. She has been recently awarded an MBE for her work with disability. Margaret had previously worked in the private sector employment and training arena managing several youth and job training initiatives. Staff and personal development are also key areas in which Margaret has an interest she has encouraged the staff to participate in Management Practice, Marketing and Diploma of Supported Diplomas. Margaret believes in leading through example and in the area of personal development completed an Msc in Executive Leadership at the University of Ulster. Margaret has worked closely with Government on many levels and in particular with the Department for Health and Social Services and Public Safety and the Department for Employment and Learning. Margaret currently holds the Chair of Northern Ireland Union of Supported Employment and is President of European Union of Supported Employment.

Wolfgang Laskowski

Mr Laskowski studied sociology. Since 2003, he works at the „Institut für Sozialforschung, Evaluation & Unternehmensberatung“ LQUADRAT in Linz, in the field of social research (evaluation and consulting). He was research associate to the degree programme „Social Work and Social Management“ at the University of Applied Sciences „FH JOANNEUM“ in Graz (Styria, Austria) in 2009-2012. In 2013 he worked as a scientific assistant at the „University of Applied Sciences Upper Austria“ (Steyr) and since 2014 he heads the team „Quality Management and Evaluation“ in the Department for Healthpromotion and Prevention of the Public Health Fund for Upper Austria.

Jürgen Länge

Mr Länge studied pedagogy, psychology and criminology in Munich. He worked as a consultant in integration service with cba e.V. in Munich for 14 years. Since 1997 he set up and guided approx. 400 trainings, seminars and workshops on „Professional Job Acquisition“ and „Constructive Communication“. Jürgen works as trainer, (coaching) supervisor, coach, moderator, Start-up consultant.